Express Entry (Federal Skill Workers)

Most of Skill Workers apply for Permanent Residency under Federal Skill Worker Category. It's point base system, where applicant need to score 67 out of 100, points are based on applicant's Age, Education, Experience, IELTS and Adaptabilities. Federal Skilled Worker is to make an expression of interest in immigrating to Canada by creating an online Express Entry Profile

Based on the information provided in their profile, Federal Skilled Worker candidates make an expression of interest in immigrating to Canada by creating an online Express Entry profile.

Based on the information provided in their profile, Federal Skilled Worker candidates obtain a score under Express Entry's Comprehensive Ranking System (CRS) that determines their ranking in the pool of eligible candidates. Periodically, the Government of Canada issues Invitation's to Apply (ITA) to the highest-ranked candidates in the Express Entry pool and invite them to apply for Permanent Residency

Provincial Nominee Program

The Provincial Nominee Programs allow Canadian provinces and territories to nominate individuals who wish to immigrate to Canada and who are interested in settling in a particular province. Each Canadian province and territory (except Quebec) has its own unique Provincial Nominee Program. Each PNP has at least one immigration stream that is aligned with the federal Express Entry immigration selection system. Provincial nominations issued under these Express Entry-aligned streams are known as “Nomination” and award Express Entry candidates an additional 600 Comprehensive Ranking System (CRS) points. Mostly applicant's apply under SINP, MPNP, NSNP, where there is no Job-Offer Letter is required from Employer.

Federal Skill Trade Worker

This program is specially designed for Trade Workers, like Electrician, Welder, Machinist, Plumber, Fitter, Automotive Service Technician, Chef, Cook, Hairstylist, and many more categories. Applicant can apply through Job Offer Letter from Canadian Employer or Certificate of Qualification. Applicant need to give written and in some trade practical exam and have to score 70% out of 100%. On successful exam applicant receive Certificate of Qualification and can apply for Permanent Residency. IELTS requirement is low compare to Skill Workers. Trade Occupation List vary from Province to Province.

Quebec Skill Worker Program

Quebec is Canada's only francophone province. The Quebec Skill Worker Program has specific qualifying criteria based on Quebec's Economy, Employment and Culture requirement. In fact, under the Quebec Skill Worker Program, additional points are awarded to applicants with families, especially those with young children. There are some additional points for French Language.

The Quebec Skill Worker Program is different from other Canadian immigration programs in that it involves three steps. First, the applicant must apply for Declaration of Interest through Arrima Project, Second, to obtain their Quebec Selection Certificate (CSQ). After the CSQ is obtained, applicants then apply to the Federal government to get their permanent resident visa.

Business Investor Program

It is widely believed that Canada is one of the top 10 easiest countries to start a business in. This is due to the country being extremely rich in natural resources, having an immensely skilled labor force and a stable government. If you would like to immigrate to Canada as an Entrepreneur or Investor, you have several Entrepreneur and Investor Visa options available to you. Investment amount is depends on Province to Province, and the best part is applicant no need to invest in advance. Applicant can invest and start business within one or two years (During Work Permit Visa), from date of landing. British Columbia has introduced their Regional Pilot Tech Program in April 2019, where lowest amount to invest i.e $100000/-.
